Baker, Alfred [Dean, Faculty of Arts] Sept. 1969 (027)

On the retirement of Professor Alfred Baker, LL.D., Dean of the Faculty of Arts, from his active duties in this University the Board of Governors desire to place on record an expression of their high appreciation of the services he has rendered to the University for the long period of forty-four years. As graduate, lecturer, registrar, professor and dean he has had an unusually varied experience and has been able to serve his Alma Mater with a completeness and loyalty that have been allowed to but few. Clear and thorough in his teaching, independent in his judgments, ever ready in the performance of professorial or administrative duties Dean Baker spent his varied and abundant gifts in loyal devotion to his University for which he has ever worked with the deepest affection. His name will long be remembered as it is now widely cherished by thousands of former students in all parts of the world. The Governors hope that many years of useful if less strenuous activity will be granted to Dean Baker and that his will still be a familiar figure within the University.
